

Scholarships for doing

nothing

We live in a time in which, instead of striving for success and effectiveness, it would be better to strive for a lack of consequences. What action might I refrain from performing in order to prevent my life from having negative consequences for others?

Application deadline: 15. September 2020
(Postmark)

Duration of the scholarship: during a time period to be defined by you yourself during the running time of the exhibition.

You can find the application documents at:
